FLORIDA SOUTHERN COLLEGE LIBRARY

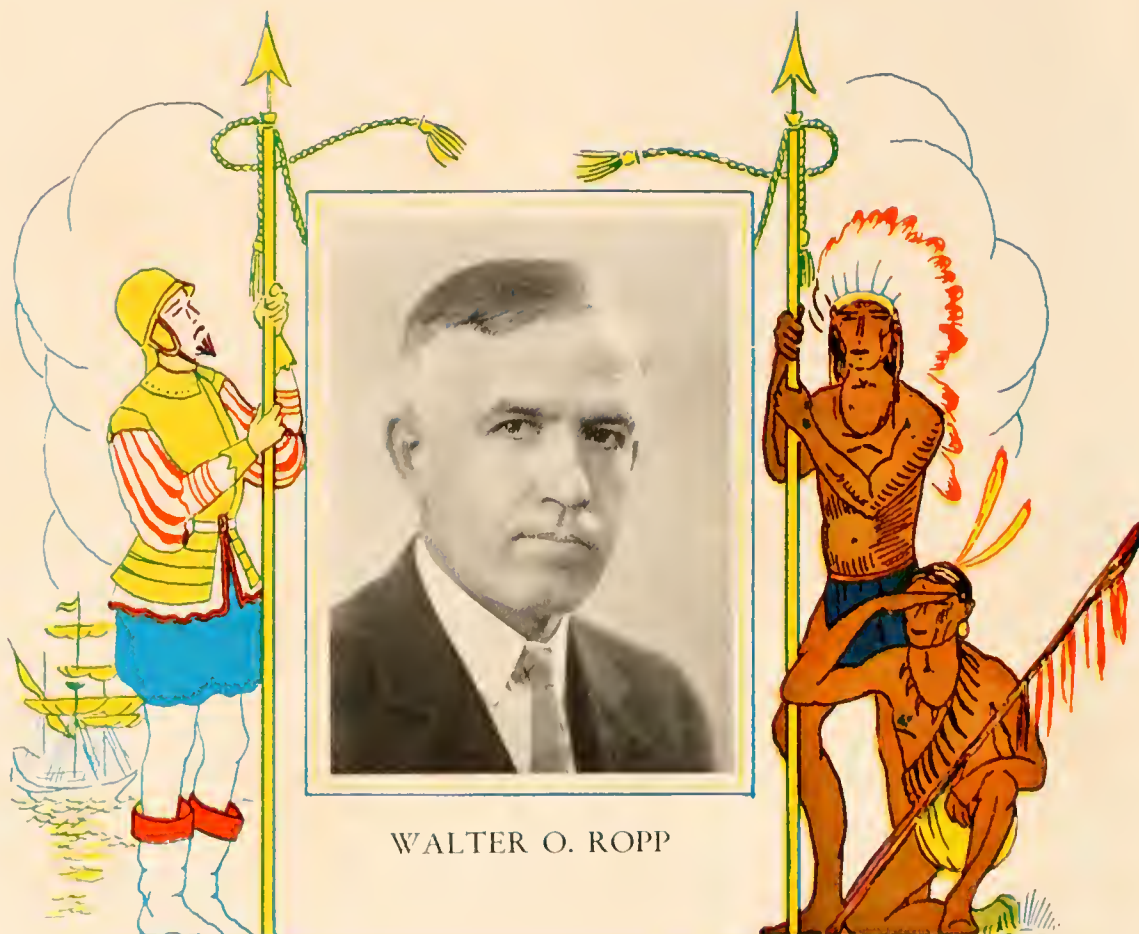

EX LIBRIS

WALTER O. ROPP

Dedication

In recognition for the service which he has rendered to us and to our college we dedicate the 1930 Interlachen. For thirteen years at Southern College he has proven through countless acts of service that he is our loyal friend. Therefore we hold in love and high esteem the name of Walter O. Ropp.

Theme

It has been the purpose of the editors of the "Interlachen" to make this edition of the year-book characteristic and picturesque.

We used as our background the traditions of the early settlers in Florida--the Indians, then the Spaniards. In contrast, we have endeavored to picture Florida as it is progressing today.

May these pages be full of pleasant memories to those who may look upon them now and in the years to come.

A Word From the President

The students who have contributed their time and enthusiasm to the making of this book have produced an editorial and photographic chronicle of one of the best years in the history of Southern College.

If this book bears the reflection of a congenial group of faculty members and students laboring together harmoniously for education of the mind, heart and body, it is a true record of the year 1929-30 at Southern College.

In the class rooms, the students have improved their minds by gaining important information and learning how to think and study. In extra-curricular activities, they have polished their talents, exercised their bodies for good health and energy, and learned more how to get along with one another.

In the class rooms and out, they have found spiritual guidance to give them true evaluations and proper attitudes. What has been accomplished by them remains to be more adequately written in the pages of the future after they have had more extensive opportunities to serve as good citizens, as valuable members of society.

Prefaced by more than forty years of tradition, the present year is to be recorded as one of notable success for Southern College; a year that links the treasured past with a future that is bright.

KENNETH E. REED, B.S.

President Class of '30

Gerald Everett Knoff, A.B.

Winter Haven, Florida

A leader of men. Gerald fits into Southern College like a hand in a glove. With his executive ability, his oratorical powers, and his friendly ways, he has brilliant prospects for success. Knoff is the intelligent sort who wins loving cups, makes marvelous grades, and must needs back-up and wait for the rest of the class to catch up.

Winnie Farley, A.B.

Blackstone, Virginia

Winnie's a peach, you know—so obliging so efficient, so capable. Who but Winnie would have helped us wrestle with Mathematics? Who but Winnie could have served so faithfully as Dean Cox's secretary? Who but Winnie deserves several "cum laudes?" Winnie, here's to you all success.

Tau Sigma Literary Society '27; Salmagundi Club '28, '29; President Girls Service Band '28; Freshman Basket Ball Team; Y.W.C.A. '28-'30; Interlachen Staff '30; Chi Delta Nu.

Catherine Ensign Young, A.B.

Lakeland, Florida

By her mastery of the piano and organ Catherine proves to us that there is music in her soul. Faith, she would win our hearts through this talent were she not also the clever and charming person that she is.

Graduate Piano '22; Post Graduate Piano '23; Graduate voice '24; Orchestra '20-'24; Girls Glee Club '21-'24, '29-'30; Assistant on Musical faculty '23-'24; Y.W.C.A. '21-'23; Sigma Delta.

David Carlyle Huskey, A.B.

Oklahoma City, Oklahoma

Huskey, who's popularity is indeed deserved. Everyone likes him, but, gee, why shouldn't they. Isn't he one of our very best basket-ball players, besides being a foot-ball man and a track star. And isn't he a good student, with marvelous writing ability? And doesn't he hail from 'way out West where men are men—and lady's men? You will be famous some day, Huskey, and we will say, "I knew him when—."

Basket Ball '28, '30; Cross Country '28, '29; Swimming '27; Lettermens Club; Southern Club; Ruf-Neks; Treasurer Junior Class, '28; Beta Mu.

J. Daniel Jenkins, A.B.

Lakeland, Florida

Always the artist. Can you imagine Dan sitting in any class without sketching a profile of the prettiest girl, listening to a chapel lecture without drawing caricatures of the speaker, attending church without at the same time planning his latest oil painting, or, well say, can you imagine this "Interlachen" without our own Mr. Jenkins as art editor?

Swimming '27; Interlachen Staff '30; Emory University '25-'27; Phi Delta Theta.

Mary Watson, A.B.

Lakeland, Florida

Picture Mary dressed in a lavender velvet evening gown with violets in her hair—perfectly lovely, you know, tall, state'y, intellectual, attractive. Then picture Rip, a graceful figure, making a swan dive, coxswaining her canoe team to victory, shooting a goal; Rip—peppy, athletic, keen. Mix the lot and you find it's not good, not bad, but choice! You have our vote for being the best all-'round. Power to you, Rip!

Hannah Phillips, A.B.

Lakeland, Florida

With that mischievous light in her eyes, and that friendly smile on her face, why, faith, what could one expect to find but a sweet, cheerful, and friendly girl. Hannah, I'll bet you're not an idealist nor a pragmatist but just the sort of a girl who would enjoy a beautiful moon.

Chi Delta Nu, Pres. '30.

Lois F. Vetter, A.B.

Lakeland, Florida

When everyone else gives up the struggle in class, the wise teacher recognizes his cue for calling upon Mrs. Vetter. Which only goes to prove what remarkable persons Mrs. Vetter—and the teacher—are.

Minnie Thelma Willis, A.B.

Bronson, Florida

Thelma is the recipient of a very wonderful honor because upon her head rests the crown of Southern's May Queen. She is also a good student, a leader in group activities, and popular with class-mates and teachers.

Charles Vaughan McConnell, A.B.

Key West, Florida

For two whole years Charles has attended college with a great handicap because he has been in that unconscious state of romance called love. And to think that one little red head could cause all of that, eh, Charles? He has one other interest, moreover, for he was one of our football heroes.

Parliament '29; Football '26-'30; Pi Kappa.

Joe Neely Hardin, A.B.

Lakeland, Florida

One of those big blonde brutes who are the weakness of women. It's true that Joe's feet are a bit big, but, my dear, so is his heart. And as he hasn't concentrated his affections on one woman only, cheer up, because there's still hope for us.

Frankie Major, A.B.

Lakeland, Florida

What's in a name? There's intelligence, quietness, gentleness, literary ability, friendliness, efficiency — all of which make up the pleasing personality of Frankie. We prophesy an interesting future for such a delightful person.

"Though "good sport" may be a hard phrase to define, it isn't hard to give an example of—not when Kat is around. If there's fun to be had, Kat will be in the midst of it. If there's work to be done, Kat will do more than her share. If there's a friend to be had, Kat will be there waiting. If there's one co'ed who more than any other, seems to belong to Southern, Kat is certainly she.

Elton Lorenzo Jones, A.B.
Cottonwood, Alabama

Jones is the experienced person, from whom we seek advice when we fall in love. Though for you to say it would be slang, Elton can talk about "his Jane" and be grammatically and possessively correct. Jones is all 'round—athletic, scholastic, and good-looking.

Marion Elwood Schauburger, A.B.
Punta Gorda, Florida

Truly it seems rather unfair for a man with such soulful eyes to sing so divinely.
It is certainly hard on the weaker sex.
To Marion life is just a symphony, and upon it he strikes a very beautiful note.

Mens Assembly '29; Alpha Delta.

Dorothy Mann Cooper, A.B.
Tampa, Florida

People with dramatic talent can afford to be little, artistic, and quaint. How we envy her bunch of violets she wears to school every morning, and yet it wouldn't quite be Dot without them.
Ah, but there's no use eulogizing Dot for she can speak for herself!

Glee Club Reader; Vagabond; Assistant Dramatic Director.

John Hartley Blackburn, A.B.

Leesburg, Florida

Hartley is that personage who wears with so much dignity and ability the presidential toga of the student body of Southern. As a true Southern gentleman, commanding the requisite courtesy, chivalry, and charm, he should not find it difficult to be an example for the students. Hartley is a man of his word, one who can be depended upon, one who loves honor more—.

Student Council '30; President Student Body '30; Vagabond; Beta Mu.

Mabel Everna Tillis, A.B.

Everyone cannot be brilliant in mathematics, but there are not many whom Mabel cannot help in the sphere of parametric equations, or transcendental functions. Mabel is above par in all of her subjects and indeed seems to make a success of everything she attempts. She is a leader in all Christian activities.

Clara Mae Simpson, A.B.

Though we may have started out by calling Clara Mae "Simp," we soon saw that we must mend our wicked ways because of her proved abilities in such fields as dramatics, athletics, and mathematics.

Clara Mae, we like you.

Forrest Dearborn Hedden, A.B.

Tampa, Florida

Forrest is one of those rare souls who consciously puts into practice the sermons which he preaches. With his graduation Southern will feel greatly the loss of his school spirit and good works. A lucky man is Hedden, for he doesn't have to worry about losing his girl—he very wisely sealed it with a ring.

Elizabeth Phillips, A.B.

Lakeland, Florida

Are you wondering why Elizabeth is taking such a thorough course in Home Economics? The explanation lies, perhaps, in the ring on the fourth finger of her left hand. These women who playfully plan to make bigger and better biscuits—Blondes have all the luck!

Home Economics Club '26-'28, Treasurer '28;
Chi Delta Nu.

Mabel Claire Swope, A.B.

Orlando, Florida

Much of Mable's fame is perhaps due to her friendliness. It is certain that she will be an excellent teacher for she has already tried it and achieved success. Mabel is the type who receives a grade of A99 from Dr. Boggess even though she doesn't come from Kentucky.

Mary Elizabeth Watts, A.B.

To Elizabeth run all of the restless Freshmen with their tales of woe and their petitions for special permissions. Elizabeth Shoemaker, A.B.

Sanford, Florida

"A study in brown" truly tells the whole story concerning this Titan-haired girl. Sometimes, though, 'tis a study in another color or a riot of colors. However, being well-dressed is not the only accomplishment of this gray-eyed girl for she is a writer. No, you've guessed wrong! Not one of these silly love poets but a writer that can sling off a feature story jammed full of witticisms.

When we are young they call us "red-heads" but when we grow up we become "titian beauties." Red has everything a Southern co-ed should have—poise, pep, executive ability, wit, personality, a fraternity pin, and—Ken. Red, you stand ace-high in this education racket. ## Kenneth Eugene Reed, B.S.

Altoona, Pennsylvania

Only once in a blue moon is there created such a veritable Prince Charming as Ken. He is the ideal lover — so kind, so thoughtful, so unselfish, so true. And listen, big boy, we're only wishing that you had heaps of brothers just like you! Ken has lived a full and successful life during his four years at Southern. He has very admirably fulfilled the offices of the presidency of the Vagabonds, the presidency of the Senior class, and the business managership of the Interlachen. Ken is a friend in time of need. We congratulate you, and wish you much happiness, Ken.

Lakeland, Florida

One must recall crowds of people, a calm lake, canoes filled with excited girls, blue and white colors streaming for Muriel is one of those girls who played a leading part in Southern's annual canoe races. She is a cheerful soul, ever smiling, always gay. Good-hearted, too, and friendly. She has that something all girls hope for—a wedding ring.

Now I ask you—can you imagine Southern College Library without Frederick Cade? Quiet and unassuming, yet he has made a definite place for himself in Southern. Perhaps he has absorbed his quietness and thoughtfulness by spending so many hours in an atmosphere of books. To be surrounded by books, it seems to us, would be an ideal setting in which to woo the deepest thought.

Umatilla, Florida

One hears the screech of brakes and one halts one's exhausted body in order to peer around. Then One's interest is quickly aroused for Lo! it is Shorty Wilson with the life-saving promise of a ride. But one mustn't be forgetting that this isn't the only cause and effect of Shorty's popularity. He has a cheerful smile, a keen mind, and a dependable personality. Good luck to you, Professor Wilson, in your teaching career.

Anyone who can be a successful master of both school and family is, to our way of thinking, a miracle man,—or another David Daboll. With the faith and courage inherited from his name-sake of Bible times, and the knowledge acquired at Southern College, Mr. Daboll will go a long way in this old world.

Catheryn Margaret Bostick, A.B.

Wauchula, Florida

"Who's all right?" yells Kitty, our little red-headed cheer-leader, and we might well answer "Kitty Bostick." Kitty is to us a problem of contradictions. Especially so when she triumphantly contradicts the multitude, who accuse her of being a Freshman. Faith, who can blame them, however, when she's so little, so youthful, and possessed of that ideal mixture of red-gold hair, blue eyes, and dimples?

"If winter comes," Babcock is one of those birds who fly their way southward. From Vermont to Southern College is, perhaps, a long flight, but a successful one—to be sure. Successful, too, have been his scholastic and collegiate activities. Many times will he be missed when he heeds the call of spring and makes his return flight to those Vermont hills.

Class of '30

Enriched by four years of conscientious study in a sympathetic community—an academic community where life is advantageously condensed—members of the Class of '30 are clothed with an heritage that is theirs to cherish with hearts sensitively attuned; theirs to respect with right living; theirs to honor with good citizenship and theirs to enhance through persistent striving.

The graduation day is the dividing line. They have proved their worth among congenial fellow-students and proficient instructors. They have yet to prove their worth in the fields of activity for which they have been preparing, but, as they enter upon their chosen careers, they will move forward under the beam of a gracious confidence which their instructors and under-classmen repose in them. Their diplomas are symbols of an inestimable endowment their four years of work and play at Southern College have afforded; and the friends they leave behind are testimonials of uprightness, diligence and affability.

Members of the Class of '30 go out through the portals of an Alma Mater that is hopeful for their success—the kind of success that benefits both society and the individual. As they achieve, the friends they are leaving behind will rejoice. May the members of the Class of '30, in turn, hold dear the memories of their Alma Mater.

Cycle of Dreams

By NEDRA UDINE BOSTICK

*Dusky feet walked on gray white shores,
Wondering—loving this land
Where the night-bird slowly soars,
—Dusky footsteps in the sand.*

*Sinewy bodies danced 'neath autumn skies,
Golden campfires in the twilight,
Peace, joy, silence—then surprise
When strangers came in the night.*

*Rustling palm leaves swaying in the breeze,
Blossoms with fragrance untold,
Brought bright-armoured men 'cross the seas,
Hunting for treasures of gold.*

*Iron-gray weapons fought the red man
Conquering from sea to sea of blue,
Strong forts followed the pirate band,
One by one glittering cities grew.*

*Again strong ships plowed the seas,
Pale-faced dreamers from far away
Came to live and work 'neath the trees
Where crimson and gold mingle with the gray.*

*Man-made canyons yawn to the sky.
Electric signs blaze in the night—
Man's gay-colored birds now soar on high
Multi-colored clouds—drift in the twilight.*

Alma Mater

There's a school we love and honor,
To her campus mem'ries cling;
It's of our dear Southern College
And her praises that we sing.

CHORUS

We will honor her forever,
And we'll loyal be and true
To our Alma Mater, Southern,
And the floating White and Blue.

When we hear the name of Southern,
Loyal fires burn in each heart;
In her games and work and friendships
We will always take a part.

CARNIVAL NIGHT

"Hello — Wish you were here. We're having a wonderful time!" as they write home on the picture post cards. We dive, swim, canoe, golf, picnic, play, and even at times break down and study. If we aren't athletic, sure we wear football sweaters and pretend that we are. And above all the moss-hung oak on the moonlit waters gives us romance a-plenty.

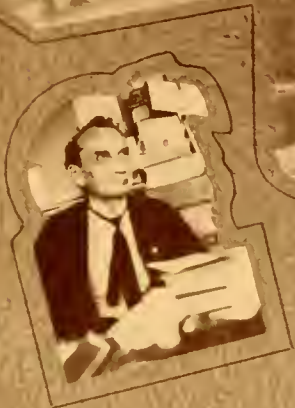

Daily dozens may be sought in various ways. Girls often choose baseball. Of course, canoeing furnishes still another way to get calouses on one's hands. Now boys must needs descend to football and track for their sport. Sloppy shows us how to punt. To give that extra bit of pep and inspiration are Cheer-leaders Pat, Kitty, and Bernie, backed up by the coiling Serpents, and all the rest of loyal Southern on parade.

After a dinner prepared by the staff on the upper left, and served by the staff on the upper right, Co and Ed are allowed to walk around the triangle and to the gate, or to spend a friendly quarter of an hour in the drawing room. Dr. Boggess gazes upon these breaks in co-education with an approving eye, agreeing that Southern is the best place—next to Kentucky.

We have everything
at Southern — aviators, acrobats, Mr. and Mrs.
Country (who've jist
left the farm for a leetle holiday in the city), big girls (who simply won't grow up but insist on acting childish),
May Queens, and the star performers of
"Sun-Up."

When the College Orchestra strikes up a sprightly tune, Lucille stops weeping and blows her nose, even Orville and Madelyn stop fighting, and lo! the rest of us paint happy smiles on our faces—for we know there'll be whoopee in every chord!

The Vagabonds

The Vagabonds, Southern's Dramatic students, have enjoyed one of the most successful years in the history of the organization. Under the leadership of Miss Marguerite Wells, the proficient and energetic director, the Vagabonds have accomplished, with considerable success, the plans made at the beginning of the school year.

This past year has seen the Southern Vagabonds come to be recognized as a group capable of presenting every type of production known to the collegiate stage. These plays have been carried to various cities of Florida and have been cordially received by large and enthusiastic audiences.

Sponsoring the personal appearance of E. H. Southern, world renowned Shakespearian dramatist, the club has paved the way for the appearance of other stage notables in the future.

The High School tournament was held for the second time at the college. The participants from the different high schools gave their plays with a will and spirit that was admirable. Eustis, Fort Lauderdale and Robert E. Lee of Jacksonville finished first, second and third in the order named. The plays presented by the winners were "Where the Cross is Made," "The Valiant," and "The Knave of Hearts." Other high schools represented were Apopka, Lakeland, and Sanford.

The plays presented by the Southern Vagabonds were:

ONE ACT—"The Robbery," "Our Aunt from California."

THREE ACT—"The New Poor," "Sun-Up."

FOUR ACT—"Merton of the Movies."

The Southern College School of Music

HOWARD J. BARNUM, Director

HOWARD J. BARNUM

The Southern College School of Music has made notable progress during the past year under the leadership of Prof. Howard J. Barnum, director of the school. An increase in the enrollment has necessitated several additions to the music faculty.

A pipe organ has been installed and Prof. O. A. Seaver, the leading organist of Tampa, has been secured to teach in this department. Prof. Seaver is past-Dean of the American Guild of Organists, Florida Chapter.

Another valuable addition to the faculty is Prof. Verman Kimbrough, who has already proved himself a teacher of great distinction. Prof. Kimbrough received his A.B. from Birmingham-Southern College and has had the finest musical training both in America and in Europe including several successful appearances in grand opera in Italy.

Mrs. Helen Wood Barnum is head of the piano department. She was graduated from the West Virginia Wesleyan College and has studied in Oberlin Conservatory; Findlay College; University of Iowa, and also under Allan Spencer. Her remarkable ability in the music field is responsible for her success as a teacher and promoter of the Piano Department in Southern College.

VERMAN KIMBROUGH

Mrs. Sue Fowler who is a graduate of Albion College in Michigan, is an assistant in Piano. This department also furnishes employment to two student assistants.

OLIVER A. SEAVER

The Southern orchestra under the Direction of Professor Barnum has grown, both in numbers and efficiency.

The preparatory classes for children under twelve years of age, gave a most interesting recital in the Drawing room during the winter term, over fifty children participating.

These and other activities show that the constructive policies of the school are movements in the right direction.

The Southern Songsters were organized in 1928 by Mrs. Howard J. Barnum.

The Songsters chose for their presentation this year, a musical fantasie, "The Song Shoppe," written by Mrs. Barnum.

There are forty members in the club and they have made many public appearances. The initial performance was given in Lakeland. Two long trips were made during the year. The first, which was taken in March, included important cities on the East Coast. Another made in May included places on the West Coast.

The Songsters also made several trips to nearby towns and have sung at social events in the city.

Although the organization is only two years old it has made a name for itself all over Florida.

Much of their success is due to the able direction of Mrs. Barnum.

The Interfraternity Council is composed of three representatives from each of the three fraternities on the campus. It is their purpose to formulate rules for pledging and to bring about a more friendly relationship between the fraternities. As a result of their work a better spirit has existed among the men of the student body. Beta Mu: Kenneth Reed, Joe Carswell, Joe Hardin. Pi Kappa: Forrest Hedden, Rigsby Satterfield, Walter Woolfolk. Theta Kappa Psi: Gerald Knoff, Rupert Smith, Russell Gutteridge.

Fraternities

There is no college whose ideals are not influenced by the presence of sororities and fraternities.

Whether this influence be good or bad depends upon the ideals of these organizations.

Southern has been greatly benefited by the presence of fraternities and sororities on the campus, for they have maintained higher standards of scholarship and have instilled in their members a closer friendship.

In 1925 permission was given for the establishment of secret clubs and during that year the following were formed: Sororities, Kappa Gamma Tau, Theta Pi Delta and Phi Delta; Fraternities, Beta Mu, and Pi Kappa. In 1926 the Nu Tau Beta sorority and Theta Kappa Psi fraternity were formed. Chi Delta Nu Sorority was established in 1929.

Pan-Hellenic council for the sororities and Interfraternity council for the fraternities deal with all matters and questions which pertain to the betterment and advancement of secret organizations of Southern.

The purpose of these councils is to promote a feeling of understanding and friendship among the clubs and to uphold physical, mental and moral standards in the organizations.

FOOTBALL

COACH HOOD

When a finer fellow than Coach Hood is produced, then the boys on this year's team want to see him, for he will certainly be a wonder. Coach took charge of Varsity athletics at the last moment when Coach Burbage resigned, and was handicapped by lack of material and a late start. But through a disastrous season, his faith in his team was never broken, and because of this and his wonderful personality, he found a deep place in the hearts of the boys and the student body as well. We will never forget the man who always gave us the best time that he could.

Charlie "Pop" Stevens took over Freshmen athletics after finishing his career as a Moccasin performer. He had a good knowledge of football, gained from a long experience as a player, and was able to impart it to his players. His geniality and ever-ready smile made him a favorite on the campus.

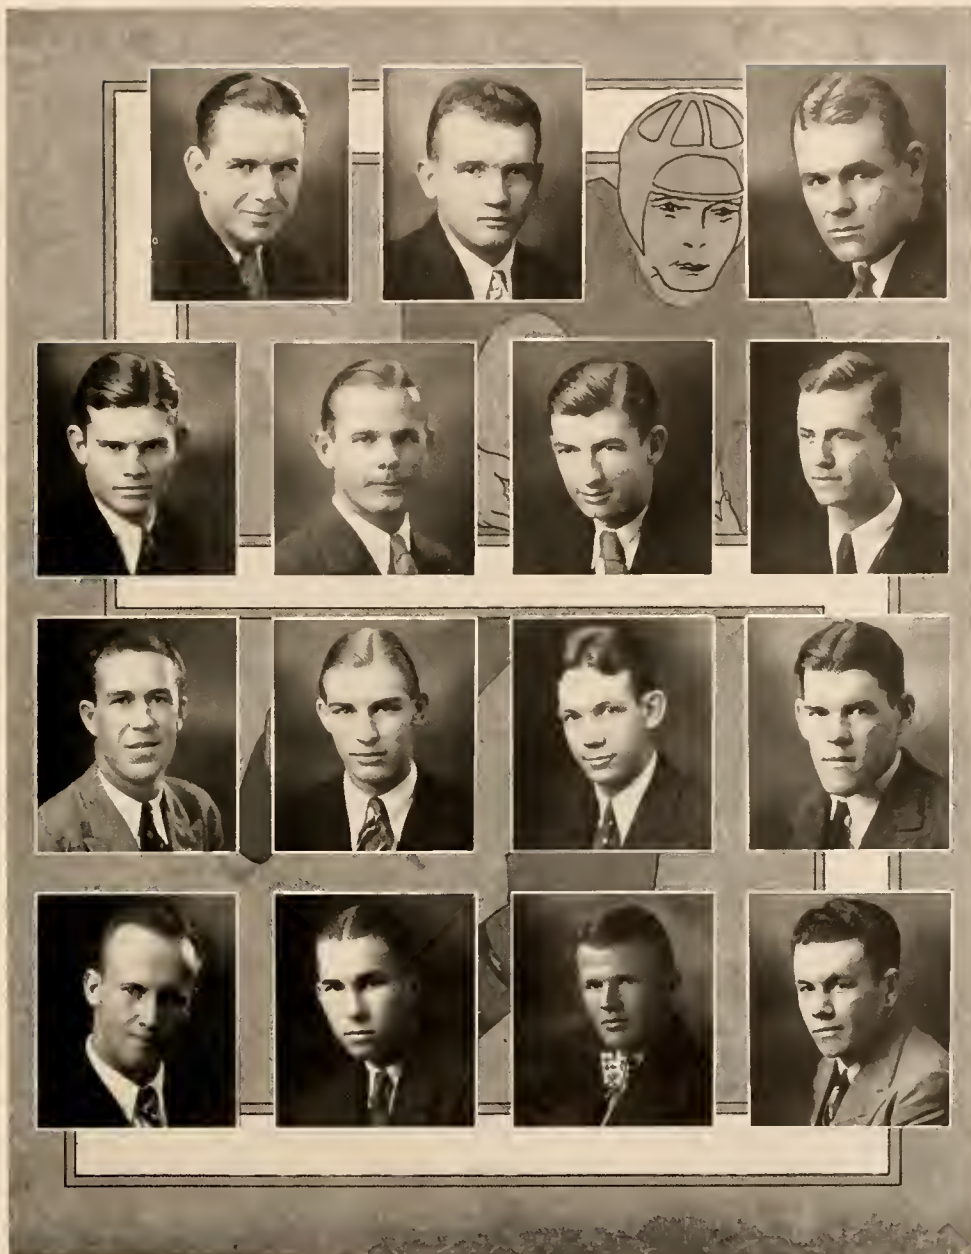

Dean Cox, Chairman of the Athletic Committee, is one of the most loyal supporters that the Moccasins have, and a great deal of their success is due to the untiring way that he works for them. Dean is liked by all for the fair way that he looks at things and for the good advice that he offers.

THE LETTERMEN'S CLUB

This organization is composed of men who have fought for the honor of Southern in athletics. Those select few whom the College has honored with the coveted "S" are included.

INTERCACHEN

HUSKEY—End. A versatile athlete, equally at home on the basketball court or on the football field. Fast and shifty, he was unusually good for a gain around his end.

MURRELL, Captain—Back. One more year of Sloppy's fifty yard punting is all we will have, as he will be a Senior next year. His fine work at center was also a bright spot in the Moccasin's defense.

SPOONER—Guard. The best end and the surest tackler on the squad. Joe brought back memories to the old timers of how his brother, Dewey, used to play end.

SUMNER—Back. A fast back with "cross-country" upbringing. Runs all the way back and forth to Clearwater every week end.

WOOLFOLK—Guard. "Honker" was the man who stopped the Erskine and Rollins backs time and again before they started from their positions.

J. DAVIS—Full Back. Jimmy is a Sophomore, one of the most willing workers on the squad and always was doing his best. Jimmy was the main-spring of the Moccasin attack.

MELTON—Back. An accurate passer, and a sure gainer around the end.

PADDOCK—End. Jakie could play end or half-back with equal effectiveness, and did the punting when the Captain was out.

GREENE—Tackle. Cy played a real game against Miami U., and showed flashes of a form he had before his injuries.

MCWILLIAMS—Guard. Kelly was perhaps the biggest man on the squad and blew in from Arkansas. He played his best game against St. Pete.

H. L. DAVIS—End. Henry Lee did not get to show his wares so much this season, but he is going to be a big man for the Blue and White next year.

BURFORD—Back. Who does not remember Bubber's low, hard line-plunging and his hard hitting interference for others? A man who played the game for all it was worth.

Craven—Tackle. Sturdy and reliable, it was a hard job for a quarter to run a play over Harvey's part of the line.

Diffenwirth—Tackle. Old Diffy was one who was willing to serve the team in any way, and when the Coach called on him, he was ready with the goods.

Burkhart—Guard. Paul comes from up in the Buckeye State where they really play football. He has another year on the squad, which is good news for followers of the Mocs.

Tolle—Center. Carroll played center, end and half-back with equal effectiveness. He caught the pass over the goal line that beat St. Pete.

Hardin — Tackle. Joe played his last and best year for Southern, and he made folks sit up and take notice. He played his best game against Stetson, maybe because it was his last chance to play against those Hatters.

SATTERFIELD—Back. Riggs is a fast back and his interference has trouble in keeping out of his way. A good back and a fine chap, and was in the thick of things.

JONES—End. A big man, but fast. He was able to handle his interference and still get his man. He was a good pass receiver and always down under punts.

TARR—One of these boys who make a coach's heart glad by keeping after his goal to make something to the team.

J. ROU—Guard. The iron man of the team who played twenty consecutive quarters before being taken out. E.D.'s little brother.

WEBB—Tackle. A big man who showed a lot of power down in the center of the line.

E. D. ROU—Tackle. The most consistent linesman on the team, a bulwark on defense.

MCCONNELL—Guard. Mac distinguished himself as one of the most consistent and conscientious Moccasins of the entire squad.

MARCHANT—Center. Joker's clever and aggressive playing at center won the approval of fans, teammates and Coach Hood.

Resume of Season

Coach Hood, Southern's New Varsity Coach, sent out a call for all Varsity men to report for football practice on September 9th. On this date, about fifteen men reported and a few more came in as the days went by, but this hindered practice somewhat, as plays had to be rehearsed for their benefit.

This lack of practice was shown when the Moccasins went to Gainesville on September 25th, and met the worst defeat that they have suffered in years from the University of Florida—losing 54 to 0. As a result, they came back to Lakeland a sadder but wiser team.

Practice was entered into with a new vim the next week in preparation for the game with South Georgia A. & M. In this game Southern outplayed the Georgia boys but an intercepted pass was converted into a touchdown, and as Southern was unable to overcome this seven point advantage, another game was chalked up on the wrong side of the ledger.

Thoroughly determined to redeem themselves, the Moccasins made a journey to Miami to play Miami U. On a rain-soaked field and playing in a game that was marked by extra rough playing, the Moccasins again lost a close game, 6 to 0.

Next came the game with the Stetson Hatters, Southern's ancient rivals. Stetson came down to avenge a 13 to 0 defeat of the year before and Southern was just as determined that they should go back to DeLand disappointed, but in a game that was marked by good playing and clean sportsmanship of both teams, Southern bowed to a superior team to the tune of 42 to 19.

St. Petersburg Junior College was the next opponent of the Moccasins and though they put up a good fight, they were forced to bow before a smooth running Moccasin attack by a 6 to 0 score.

Southern was now beginning to hit her stride, and the following week met and defeated the best team Rollins has produced in years by a 13 to 0 score. This game was featured by the smooth working of Southern's offense and the punting of Captain Murrell.

1930

Good things don't last long and on Thanksgiving day, Southern lost the last game of the season to the Erskins Seceeders from Due West, S. C.

Erskins flashed an aerial offense, the like of which had not been seen in Florida for a long time and when the smoke had cleared away, Southern was on the short end of 26-0 score.

Although the season was not a success from point of games won, it did bring out the fact that after a year's experience of playing together, the Moccasins will be a very formidable team next year, as only two men will be lost by graduation and some likely prospects will be available from the Freshman team.

Freshman Football Squad

Charlie Stevens, Moccasin star of 1929, was appointed as the Freshman football Coach and succeeded in teaching them quite a bit of fundamental football that he had learned in his long experience as a player.

His team was handicapped by lack of weight and reserve strength but they were always in there fighting, and regardless of the outcome their opponents could tell that they had been in a game.

Captain Johnston, on the line, and Bloodworth and McQueen in the backfield, were outstanding performers.

The team was composed of Captain Johnston, Sutton, Sargeant, Wooten, Lee, Buell, Bloodworth, McQueen, Wilson, Entzminger, Jaeger, Thompson, Russell, Pickens, Diffienwirth.

dependent team; the Moccasins journeyed over to Tampa to engage the strong Tampa Heights Methodists in battle. During the first half both teams put up a nice exhibition of basketball with the Moccasins holding a slight lead. The referee let the game get away from him in the second half and things got rough. The Moccasins, however, were able to hold their own, and our second game was chalked up on the right side 27-13.

Coach Hood's initial call for basketball practice brought out thirteen men as aspirants for the team; and from then on a lively scrap for positions was had by all.

The first scheduled game was with the Sebring Freshmen, who presented a good team. The Moccasins were handicapped by the smallness of the playing floor but were never in danger of defeat, and when the final whistle blew they were leading 32 to 20.

The next game was also with a

Defeat comes to every team some times and the University of Florida gave Southern her first one of the 1930 season. Presenting a team that averaged over six feet in height, the Florida boys held a decided advantage and, as a result, Southern lost 44 to 31. Melton played an outstanding game for Southern.

Our next game was with our old rivals from Rollins who had the best team they have had in years. They were no match, however, for the fast-moving Moccasins and took the short end of 39-16 score back to Rollins.

The Moccasins then entered the independent ranks again for their next victim, and led by the brilliant shooting of Huskey, they defeated the South Florida Athletic Club from Tampa 50 to 38.

Coach Hood, with eight men, then embarked on a week's road trip into Georgia, where we won two and lost three games.

The first game was with the Norman Park Junior College team. Playing on a small court before a howling crowd of four hundred and fifty people, the Moccasins were defeated by they met defeat by a 40 to 28 score. The Moccasins were behind only one point at the half but cracked the second half and the Soldiers gradually ran up their score.

Hubbard Hardware of Columbus was our next opponent. Before a small, shivering crowd, and playing on a cement floor, the Moccasins were victorious, by 46-29. Massey of the Hubbards and Captain Spivey of the Moccasins treated the fans to an exhibition of fancy dribbling.

The Moccasins journeyed down to Albany next day and a three-point margin, 41-38. The game was not without its reward, for Captain Spivey's wonderful dribbling and shooting won much favorable comment. Spivey led Southern's scoring with nineteen points.

Revenge is sweet, however, and the next night before a good crowd, the Moccasins defeated the South Georgia A & M School 50 to 41, being led in this victory by the good passing and shooting of Murrell, the elongated center.

The next game the Moccasins played was with the Infantry Team of Fort Benning, Ga., and that night played the strong Albany Blues. Albany presented one of the smoothest working teams that the Moccasins encountered all year and also a brilliant forward in Nix, who scored twenty-seven points. The score of this struggle was Albany 63, Southern 35.

WEBB
Guard

Returning home, the Moccasins rested a week and then went to Rollins for a return game with the Tars. This was Rollins last game and they were anxious to win, but the Moccasins were not in that frame of mind and led by Murrell, they won 33 to 21.

PADDOCK

TOLLE

The spirit of the student body took a decided jump the next week as we were scheduled to play Stetson, Southern's ancient rival from DeLand. This was the best game at Southern all season; with neither team retaining the lead for any length of time. At the half, the Moccasins were leading four points, but in the second half, the Hatters, led by their brilliant captain, Jenkinson, passed the Moccasins and although Southern staged a desperate rally, they could not quite make the grade and Stetson won, 38-34.

BUCKNER
Guard

Huskey was ending his career and Captain Spivey was playing with the ligaments of his hand torn loose, but these factors apparently never bothered them. When the smoke cleared away, Southern had won 34 to 33. The credit for this victory goes to Huskey who made a beautiful shot from the corner of the court to give Southern a one-point lead.

Individual scoring of the squad: Melton, 146; Spivey, 128; Murrell, 95; Paddock, 41; Huskey, 36; Satterfield, 26; Buckner, 16; Marchant, 11; Tolle, 2; Webb, 2.

We next played a return game with the University of Florida and were defeated 54-30. The Gators were held to an even score until the last quarter, when Huskey and Spivey were removed for fouls. Captain Spivey again led his team with his wonderful shooting and deceptive dribbling.

In fairy stories all things end well and the Moccasins' season, although not a fairy story, was no exception. The team went to Stetson, determined to revenge the defeat of the week before and how they did play!

Freshmen Basketball

Walter Woolfolk was appointed by Coach Hood to tutor the Freshman team and he succeeded in molding together a very creditable aggregation considering their lack of experience. The season was not a success from the point of games won, but it did bring forward three likely candidates for next year's Varsity, namely Hightower, Shaw and Dieffenwierth.

Following are the names of the players on the squad: Shaw, Turner, B. Wycoff, S. Wycoff, Hightower, Russell, Wilson, Dieffenwierth, Jager.

MINOR SPORTS

Minor Sports

This year has seen an increase in all minor sports on Southern's Campus. The Inter Mural rivalry has been one of the main causes for this, through which many fine athletes have been discovered. Only those who turn out to fight for old "Tippan" may become stars through this competitive source.

Tennis, of course, was no stranger to many, but such sports as diamond ball, barnyard golf, Lipputian golf, and other forms of innocent amusement had been somewhat lacking in the past.

A cross country team, to the amazement of many, set a good record on the up hill and down dale course; while a shot putting and swift running track team revealed talent that was delightful as well as unexpected. For the first time in years the crunch of spiked shoes, and the swish of the disk made known to all the world that track had returned to Southern to stay.

These added sports have given many a chance to participate, and, each of these, places the athlete in better trim for the major sport of them all, King Football, which comes all too soon in the early fall.

Looking back on the past year we have very little to regret, less to forget, and much to remember. And we hope, and sincerely believe we have done nothing to cause the proud old name of Southern, with her tradition of fair play, to be dragged in the dust of collegiate criticism.

Tennis

Tennis is fast becoming a major sport in Southern's Curriculum of Athletics. The varsity tennis team can claim a season far above average. Meeting opposition that was of the best, they held their own, losing only to such teams as Florida and Professional aggregations. Russ Tarr, Number One man and Capt.-Mgr. of the team, was the outstanding player of the Southern netmen. Jim Melton showed flashes of his old Championship form, and was one of the most dangerous of the rac-queteers. Burkhardt and Curn, both good tennis players, round out the letter men for the season. The schedule included matches with Miami, Florida, Rollins, Davis Islands Independents and the State intercollegiate tournament.

Intra Mural Sports

The most complete intramural program ever attempted at Southern was put over this year. The incentive for this being a 24 inch loving cup that was given by the Phi Delta Kappa, national social fraternity, to the organization having the greatest number of points at the conclusion of the program.

This list of events was arranged and carried out by an intramural sports committee. These members were from the four organizations on the campus.

The first event to be run off was the cross country run. This was won by the Theta Kappa Psi fraternity, their team having the lowest score. The Pi Kappa's were second and the Beta Mu's third. Basketball was the next sport on the program and some very good games were played. Every team had to play each other once, and it happened that the game between Beta Mu's and Pi Kappa's was for the championship. This game proved to be a fast and exciting one with Pi Kappa winning 30-15.

Horseshoes came next and here the fine pitching of Burkhart and Paddock was enough to give Beta Mu first place, with Pi Kappa second and Theta Pappa Psi third.

In tennis the Beta Mu's again won with little difficulty as their team comprised the varsity squad. This left the Pi Kappa's and the Theta Kappa Psi's fighting for second place.

The biggest event of the program was next, the track meet. Every group showed keen interest in this and had their men working long before the meet in order to get in shape. Each group had its share of outstanding track men. The meet was run off in fine style and there was keen competition between the fraternities. The Pi Kappa's won first place, Theta Kappa Psi's second and Beta Mu's third.

Satterfield of Pi Kappa was high point man of the meet for the second consecutive year, with a score of 13 points; Sumner and Wyman of Theta Kappa Psi tied for second place with 10 points each.

As this goes to press the Pi Kappa's hold a slight lead closely followed by the Beta Mus and Theta Kappa Psi's in second and third respectively.

There are two more events, baseball and swimming, with no team having a great advantage over the others in either event.

Jenkins, Huskey, Murrell

Swimming Team

The Southern College swimming team for the 1930 season was composed of Captain Clifton Murrell, Dan Jenkins, Carlyle Huskey and Chris Wooten.

Murrell was recognized as one of the best swimmers in the state. He was best in the 100 and 220 yard event.

Jenkins swam the 220 and the 440. His specialty was low board diving.

Wooten and Huskey with Murrell and Jenkins completed a fast relay team.

Wooten excelled in high board diving.

The swimming team was seriously handicapped by the lack of a coach and a convenient place to practice. The difficulty of scheduling meets was also a drawback. However, the team was successful in that they did not lose a meet during the entire season.

Girl's Athletics

The girls athletics under the able direction of Miss Kathleen Turner, who is acting as physical education director for her fourth year, has been able to make its work a great success on the campus.

Ten girls have won the college letter and two have won sweaters under the point system that has been arranged for the awarding of these emblems. Prominence in sports is required and the system is so arranged that it takes hard work to earn a sweater in even two years.

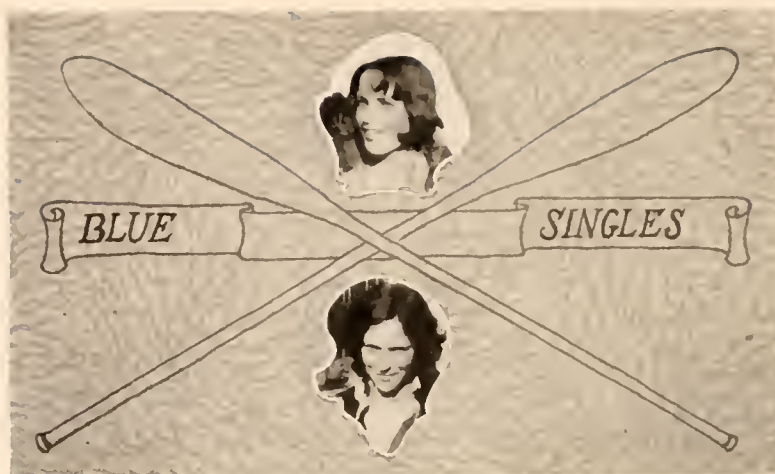

MISS KATHLEEN TURNER

The Annual Canoe Races, on November 28, between the Blues and Whites took place on Lake Hollingsworth with a large crowd of spectators viewing the scene from the shore. The Whites took the war-canoe race, and the Blues won the single-canoe race.

The Freshmen won the interclass tilt for the championship in baseball but the upperclassmen turned the tables and won the basketball championship, in three hard-fought games. Besides these interclass games in basketball, the Varsity was able to play several outside teams. The Upperclassmen and Freshmen played a double header with two teams from Tampa.

The Annual Carnival was held on April 11 and Miss Cordelia Bryant of West Palm Beach was crowned Miss Southern, to reign over the carnival. Many stunts and new ideas were carried out at the carnival making it a much better success than the one of last year.

A water regatta with Rollins was held on May 3.

HIKING SQUAD

Southern College's four hiking squads were organized on November 8. Approximately 1,000 miles have been hiked since that date. This new addition to the Sports Club has for its purpose the promotion of hiking and good sportsmanship. Leaders Mary Love, Evelyn Link, Elizabeth Strickland and Joan Bryant, together with Miss Turner, have sponsored several outings for the hiking squad coeds this year.

SOUTHERN BEAUTIES

Port Washington,

March 12, 1930

Miss Martha Tolle,
Co-Editor of the "Interlachen."

Dear Miss Tolle,

I was pleased with the high average of pretty girls within the small group of photographs you sent me. I am still worried that I may have left the very prettiest one out of the seven, because photographs are not always truthful.

Elizabeth Forehand Jones was the best. The photographer seems to have caught her personality most clearly. It gives the impression that she is a very charming, wholesome and cultured girl.

I have been assured, after many efforts, that I am not a very good subject for photography, therefore please excuse me from sending you one.

With very best wishes for the success of the "Interlachen".

Sincerely yours,

THE GREEN EYED MONSTER

*She, of proud and scornful mein
Like cold dew drops upon a green.
He, a slave till Rome destroyed
Thoughts of hate for her employed,
Tore her from the palace wall,
Took to horse, none heard her call;
Journeyed to a goat-skin tent
They, the two, to find content.
Beat her mornings with a spear,
Dragged her by the hair, (I fear)
Flouted her where ere he'd be
And her hate grew rapidly.*

*Till a day on which a tribe
Of Nomads camped by their side,
Till a gypsy lass with sighs
Smiled on him, and rolled her eyes
And when he was closer drawn
All her hate for him was gone.
She, the lady of old Rome
Tore and bit to save her own.
Woman, she, the natural way
Knew that love had come to stay.
(That is how the Gypsy strain Overcame that Roman Jane.)*

A MAIDEN'S PRAYER

*He is gone, he has went
He has left I all alone
Oh cruel, cruel world
How could it was.*

REGRET

*I hope I haven't hurt you
I only changed my mind
Its true I thought I loved you
But I'm wrong another time.*

"Absence makes the mark grow rounder."

IF

*If I told you what you meant to me
And told it in detail
If you were of a different mind
You'd have me put in jail.*

SAYS YOU

*Says you, says me
Why should we say
That all this nonsense
Is but play.*

*For many a thing
We say in jest
If it were true
Would suit us best.*
